LITTLE CHILD DIES FROM HORRIBLE BURNS

Little Mary Lucette Dickinson, child of Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Dickinson, South Willett street, died Sunday about noon after hours of horrible suffering from burns. Saturday afternoon she secured a match in some way unknown to her mother and went into the yard with it. Mrs. Dickinson soon heard the child screaming at the door and rushing there found her clothing in flames. The mother was severely burned in extinguishing the flames, but did not succeed in doing so until little Mary was too badly burned to make recovery possible. She was buried in Elmwood cemetery Monday morning.

Mary was only 5 years of see, but was an exceptionally bright and affectionate child and a great favorite in the Buntyn heighborhood, where the family lived until recently, as well as in, the Willett section. noon after hours of horrible suffering take its course, and who is wanted in Mounds, Ill., on a charge of burglary, may not be compelled to go to Mounds for trial.

Stewart was arrested shortly after he had addressed the mob which was threatening the life of a negro for running down four white children with an automobile. He was held at the police station on a warrant authorized by requisition papers honored by the governor. He sought his release from the custody of the police through a writ of habeas corpus before Justice Guthrie on the ground that he was not a fugitive from justice, submitting an alibl.

Judge Guthrie dismissed the writ and remanded the prisoner to the custody of the police, but did not permit the sheriff of Mounds to take back their man until L. H. Graves, attorney for Stewart presented to the court of civil appeals a petition for a mandamus to compel the judge of the probate court of Shelby county to permit him to appeal the will set a precedent in Shelby judicial procedure in that no other attorney has ever mandamused a judge in this county to force the right of appeal.
